Annual Education Report

Principal's Greeting/Message

January 30, 2020

Dear Parents and Community Members:

We are pleased to present you with the Annual Education Report (AER) which provides key information on the 2018-19 educational progress for the Fulton High School. The AER addresses the complex reporting information required by federal and state laws. The school's report contains information about student assessment, accountability, and teacher quality. If you have any questions about the AER, please contact Mr. Paul Hungerford, principal, for assistance.

The AER is available for you to review electronically by visiting <http://bit.ly/2HboFz5>, or you may review a copy in the main office at your child's school.

For the 2018-19 school year, schools were identified using definitions and labels as required in the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). A Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) school is one that has at least one underperforming student subgroup. An Additional Targeted Support (ATS) school is one that has three or more underperforming student subgroups. A Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI) school is one whose performance is in the lowest 5% of all schools in the state or has a graduation rate at or below 67%. Some schools are not identified with any of these labels. In these cases, no label is given.

Our school has not been given any of these labels.

Fulton High School's administration, instructional and support staff are committed to exploring and implementing a diverse learning experience for all students and families. As illustrated within this report, our students have performed at varying levels throughout all content areas. However, it's our commitment to provide Fulton High School students with the opportunities to learn in grow within the areas of Math, English, Science and Social Studies.

Sincerely,

Paul Hungerford

Parent Involvement

Parent Involvement Policy

Statement

We, at Fulton Middle School and High School, believe that parents are our children's original teachers and equal partners in the Home-School-Community triad that constitutes a child's learning environment.

Parent's Responsibilities

We believe and strongly support our parents in providing their children with a home environment that provides for their child's health, safety and emotional well-being. An environment that prepares them for school teaches them family life skills and values and builds a positive support for school learning and behavior.

School's Responsibilities

We believe that school must provide parents with current information on their child's academic progress through parent-teacher conferences, report cards, notes home, phone calls, and personal contacts. Schools should keep parents informed of schedules and special events through newsletters, memos, and notes. Every parent should receive a school handbook. Communications should be on a regular, timely basis. We also believe that schools must support families by helping to provide connections to other community agencies. This is fostered through the program's partnerships and collaborative agreements with various education, health, and welfare support agencies.

Parent Involvement in School

Parent involvement in school activities is encouraged through an open visitation policy, which allows parents to visit and observe their child's or special programs. Parents are encouraged to serve as volunteers to assist teachers in the classrooms, to help as tutors, supervise special events, chaperone field trips and be guest presenters. We believe that parents send powerful messages about education to their children when they take time to participate in school functions and set a positive educational tone at home. It is hoped that involvement will make parents comfortable and encourage them to take an active role throughout their children's school years. We believe that parents must be equal partners in their children's education. Fulton Schools will seek regular parent input through surveys, open meetings, and special events, such as parent and student workshops and celebrations.

School-Parent Compact

The Fulton School-Parent Compact describes the school's responsibility to provide high quality curriculum and instruction to all students in a supportive and effective learning environment. This compact is a written agreement of shared responsibility that:

- Defines the goals and expectations of schools and parents in the effort to improve student achievement.
- Outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will work together and build a partnership to help students achieve high academic standards.
- Translate the policies and goals of parents and schools into "action statements" (i.e. What will administrators, teachers, and parents do to make policies and goals a reality?)
- Serves as a catalyst for collaboration and a guide for ongoing, better communications, interactions and exchanges between school staff and parents/guardians.

Why a Compact

A compact provides the opportunity for developing strong school-family partnerships that will connect families and schools, as well as the broader community, and promote shared responsibility for the high performance of students. These partnerships can:

- Improve student school programs and school climate.
- Increase the skills and leadership abilities of parents.
- Ensure the provision of family services and support.
- Sustain long-term improvement in student academic achievement.
- Help teachers, parents, and school be more effective.

However, the main reason for a compact and school-family partnership is to help students succeed in meeting the challenging academic standards they are expected to master.
